Advent

It's a short advent this year with the Fourth Sunday falling on Christmas Eve. No time to waste; we will just have to dig right in with our spiritual preparations and try and balance our engagement with the more material aspects of the season!

I invite you to say extra prayers for your priests this Christmas as the alignment of a Monday Christmas day brings an extra hectic mass schedule.

Christmas Day.

We invite all our parishioners to come and celebrate the birth of Christ in the four Churches of the Harbour this Christmas eve and Christmas Day. The waiting of Advent comes to an end, and we welcome the baby Jesus into our lives, our families, and our Parish. It is a time of "Wonder and Awe in God's presence" especially on the faces of our children as they sing in their carol services, look at the lights, wait for Santa and above all take in the crib and the nativity scene in their local churches welcoming Jesus into their hearts.

I wish you all a happy and Holy Christmas.

Fr Chris O Donovan Co-pp The Harbour Parishes.

Christmas Reconciliation Service

The Christmas Reconciliation Service will be celebrated in Carrigaline on Monday, 18th December at 7.00 pm. It will be led this year by Monsignor Aidan O'Driscoll. All are welcome
